Volunteer Options

Check the Committee(s) with which you would be willing to work:

☐ Construction- works with the site selection committee to choose the area, and the type of construction that will be used; proposes guidelines for construction including design criteria, materials, and amenities; develops construction plans

☐ Church Relations- helps to bring churches into the work of the affiliate and helps deepen and celebrate Christian focus.

☐ Family Selection- defines the population in need of decent, affordable housing and develops fair, objective and non-discriminatory policies and processes for selecting those in need.

☐ Family Support- serves as the primary link between the partner family and the affiliate; helps families manage the transition to home ownership by providing a mutual support system, educational opportunities and a forum for discussions.

☐ Development- (Public Relation & Fund Raising) - helps inform prospective donors and potential volunteers about the work of the affiliate; recognizes donors and volunteers; recommends fundraising ideas to the board and implements them.

☐ Site Selection- defines the focus areas/neighborhoods within which to build; recommends them to the board and works to acquire sites at a reasonable cost.

☐ Volunteer- provides support and recognition for affiliate volunteers; coordinates outside work camps; organizes food, first aid, and volunteers at the work site; plans annual volunteer recognition, in cooperation with Public Relations.
